THE EX RULE.

Before anything was heard of the "ex" rule Captain Ham Shepperd was practically the only candidate for the collectorship in the Sixth District of Virginia. When Mr. Otey, of Lynchburg, withdrew Captain Shepperd got the solid endorse, ment of the Virginia delegation in Congress, and then the old officeholders question was sprung, resulting in the centrance of Mr. Otey, and the bringing to the front of about fifteen other candidates whose applications are now on file at the Treasury. They are good men and loval Democratics and have as much right to be candidates thave stated frankly that they are candidates only in the event Captain Shepperd cannot again secure the position, There seems to be no doubt, however, that Captain Shepperd will be appointed. Only one Democratic Collector of Internal Revenue has yet been appointed in the United States. The whole number of collectors is sixty-three and they have no tenure of office, but are subject to removal at any time. Mr. Cleveland has been waiting to appoint the commissioner. Mr. Miller left last night for his home, in West Virginia, but will return and duality on the Easth instant. Then the changes will commence.

STALNTON, VA. April 18.—Trimity Episcopal church was crowded this afternoon at 5 o'clock, the occasion being the weding of Mrs. Elizabeth Dennison Allen, of this city, and Rev. James Henry Williams, of Nashville. The prominence of the bride and groom in matters of church and their personal popularity, seemed to make this occasion the red-letter marriage ceremony of the season, and despite lowering clouds the fash-ionable were out an masse.

The beautiful old church was illuminated, and behind the chancel likes and roses lent a June-time fragrance to the sir. The bride and groom were preceded up the siste by the Rev. Harry Lee of Charlotteen and the were out an masse.

PROBABLY THE PIRST. It is quite likely that the names of Cap-tain Shepperd and Mr. William Ryan will be on the first list as the two Virginia col-lectors. The President has intimated in lectors. The President has intimated in strong terms that it is his inclination to reappoint Captain Shopperd, and has told some of that gentleman's friends that his endorsements are simply magnificent. It is also the prevailing opinion here that the President will accept the entire Virginia "slate," as the recommendations of the delegation are styled. The President expressed a desire to have the delegation make their recommendations, and certainly there is now no reason to believe that he will refuse to ratify the certainly there is now no reason to believe that he will refuse to ratify the agreement. There may be a possible exception, but it is not probable. Some thard work is being done in the interest of two or three estimable Desmorats who did not submit their claims to the conference
held by the delegation, and of course, there is some protesting going on; but, no maiter what action had been taken, everybody would have not have been satisfied. Mr.
Cleveland is said to have recognized the embarrassments of the delegation and he wants to stand by the Schators and Representitives in those State matters unless stronger reasons present themselves for rejecting one or more of the gentlemen
who were endorsed.

A CAIMER TONE.

A caimer and more confident tone characterized dealings at the Exchange to-day. The advices from Washington that the free gold in the Treasury had increased $500.000 and that the administration was fully prepared to meet any radical changes in the financial situation had a reassuring effect and led to free purchases of stocks for both accounts. The bears made saveral attempts to check the upward movement, but were unsurcessful. Their principal drives were acainst Manhattan and Chicago Gas, the first right after the opening and the latter after 1 o'clock, Manhattan sold off from 151 to 145 and Chicago Gas from SS to $554.

I o'clock. Manhattan soid off from 151 49 445 and Chicago Gas from Ss to 5524.

The general list instedutate.

The general list was hept somewhat irregular by these movements, but fluctuated within comparatively narrow limits until quite late in the day, when the buils rushed prices up on the shorts. Manhattan sold up 61, to 1514; Sugar 5, to 1224; Chicago 161, to 574; Western Linon 15, to 92%; Massouri Pacific 14, to 514; Nathanal Cortage 14, to 6134; General Electric 14, to 1034; ext-divisiond, and the other leading shares from 15 to 19 per cent. Just previous to the closs Manhattan foil back to 150 and thicago Gas to 869, but the remainder of the list reacted only fractionally, and the market left off firm in tone.
